

Join us for new resources, ideas and networking!

Environmental Education in the Green Economy

How can we afford to do EE?

How can we NOT afford to do EE?

Maine Environmental Education Association

Annual Conference - March 27, 2009

2009 MEEA Conference Strands:

- Following and Building Affordable EE Paths
- Environmental Literacy for a Sustainable 21st Century
- Take It Outside! Getting Kids Out in Nature
- EE Best Practices: Engaging Activities Within and Without the Classroom

Join us for workshops with titles including:

- Learning to Look, Looking to See
- School and Land Trust Partnerships for Place-Based Education
- Voluntary Simplicity
- Can't Afford To Do EE? Yes, You Can!
- Living Sustainably; It's Your Choice
- Science in the Schoolyard

A full listing of workshops and descriptions is available at the MEEA website.

Keynote: Rebecca Bell, Environmental Education Specialist with the Maryland State Department of Education

Location: Chewonki Foundation, 485 Chewonki Neck Road, Wiscasset, Maine 04578

Registration: $65 includes all workshops, refreshments, lunch and keynote as well as a one year MEEA individual membership.

Exhibit space still available. $25 per table includes one year Organizational Membership to MEEA

Classroom Teachers! If you require a substitute for attending, MEEA will help you attend by paying for the sub! Register for the conference and fill out the appropriate information at the bottom of the form.

Click here to REGISTER NOW

If you have questions regarding conference registration, please contact Tamara Whitmore at tamara@watershedfriends.com or (207) 621-4100.

Maine Environmental Education Association

www.meeassociation.org

The Maine Environmental Education Association facilitates and promotes Environmental Education in Maine through the sharing of ideas, resources, information, and cooperative programs among educators, organizations, and concerned individuals. MEEA is built on the strengths and contributions of our members